1. Recommended Manners of Aam'al:

Qur'an possesses divine power and it is used in various practices to invoke help and blessings of Allah. The recommended liquids with which Ayah are written include rose water, musk, saffron, honey, the juice of mint, and juice of the grape. Rain water, spring water, water from a well are used to wash the written Dua, and usually this water is given to drink to the person concerned. It is written normally on clean paper/plate. Sometimes the water is poured over the person's head as he faces towards Kabah direction.

Taqwa is a paramount pre-requisite of all Aam'al. Result would be achieved only when it is done by a Muttaqi. Those who have made Aam'al their business and claim to be specialized in this faculty have no concern with Al A'alam al Ruhaniyah. It is emphatically suggested to remain beware of such professional thugs. After recitation of Surah or particular Ayah the water is gently blown upon and then it is offered to the affected one to drink and also sprinkled over his body. This water is believed to possess the power to remove evil influence. 'Ilm al 'Adad is considered by the "Ikhwan al Safa" as the way leading to the grasp of Unity, as a science which stands above Nature and is the Principle of beings and the root of the other sciences, the first elixir and the most exalted alchemy. Indeed the importance of the number of times a Surah or Ayah is read is like following the directions for locating a hidden treasure. If the treasure is forty steps away it cannot be reached by thirty-nine, and forty-one will over-step it and it will not be found. One must trace it at forty only.

Each Surah of Qur'an can be used for numerous problems. There are Surahs which protect one's property, his household and his person from Jinn and the evil-eye. There are Ayahs as well as various Surahs which greatly help in times of distress. Aam'al should be done at stated times and stipulated number of times. Following numbers are recommended for Tasabih and Aam'al mostly, 7, 21, 40, 41, 100, 110 and 1000. [1]

2. Healing from illness & protection from enemies by Surah Yasin (36):

Surah Yasin is the heart of the Qur'an. It has been unanimously acknowledged by all Muslim Schools that this Surah is very helpful to be recited to call up the Rahmat of Allah. Yasin is also one of the names of Rasulallah(S). Surah Yasin has long been regarded as an extraordinary Surah to recite. It is a defense against evil forces, provides divine shield from the attacks of associates of Shait'an. Besides the security, this Surah also holds unique and powerful weapons which can be used in difficulty. One of such weapons is that Ay'at which was revealed during the Hijrah of Rasulallah(S) from Makkah to Madinah:

"And We have set before them a barrier and behind them a barrier, and We covered them over so that they see not." [2]

"We sent not down upon his people any armies from heaven, nor were We (in need) to send (any such army)" [3]

"It was nothing but one terrible cry, and behold - they were (like ashes) extinct. [4]

"His Command, when He intends anything, is only that He says to it, "Be' then (and there) it is - (Kun Faya'kun)" [5]

The direction for using Surah Yasin (36) alone covers all the experiences of life, from an easy birth to a painless and peaceful death, and the blissful journey to Jannah.

5. A'amaal of Ayah al Kursi

Rasulullah(S) honoured Ubayy bin Ka'ab, due to his knowledge. Once he said to Ubayy: "Leyahnikal ilma Ya Abal Munzir"- O Abal Munzir, congratulate the bounty of knowledge to you. Ubayy bin Ka'ab narrated that he had a harvest of dates. He noticed that it was shrinking day by day, so decided to keep a watch on it at night. During vigilance he observed a beast that looked like a grown up boy. Ubayy said Salaam to him, which he responded. Ubayy asked: "Are you human or Jinn"? It replied, "Jinn." Ubayy asked: "Show me your hand." It showed him its hand, and he saw that it looked like a dog's hand, with fur covering it. He said, really this is Jinn like!" Jinn disclosed Ubayy that community of Jinn knows that there is no one among them stronger than me." Immediately Ubayy asked it, "What brought you here?" It replied, "We have been informed that you like to give charity, so we came to get some of your food." Then Ubayy asked it, "What would protect us from you?" It replied: "The Ayah from Surah al Baqarah:

"Allahu La 'ilaha 'illa Huwal-Hayy ul-Qaiyyum-----Hum Fiha Khalidun"

Whoever recites Ayah al Kursi (Ayah 255-257: Surah al Baqarah) in the evening will be protected from us until the morning, and whoever recite it in the morning will be protected from us until the evening."

In the morning, Ubayy came in the presence of Rasulullah(S) and narrated him entire happening. Rasulullah(S) responded to Ubayy:

"The Jinn has said the truth!" [9]

Whoever reads Ayah al Kursi all his needs will be fulfilled. It has ten pauses. When reading it, at each pause one should bend a finger into the palm of the hand, beginning with the little finger of the right hand and ending with the thumb of the left hand. When both hands are thus closed, Salaw'at upon Mohammad and his descendents should be recited three times. This should be followed by the reading of Surah al Fatihah 10 times, and after each reading one finger should be opened to come out, but in the reverse order from that in which they were drawn in. Then all fingers should be pointed upward, and the suppliant should blow his breath upon them, and then express all his needs and desires. If this is done for 40 days .their desire will be granted, Inshallah. [10]

This A'mal is known as the A'mal of Ayah al Kursi. After Salaat al Fajar, Salaat al Maghrib and before retiring to bed, Surah al Fatihah should be read thrice including Bismillah, Ayah al Kursi, Surah al Falaq 113 and Surah an Naas 114. It is necessary to recite Salawaat thrice in the beginning as well as at the end of the Amal. If the affected one recites himself it is better, otherwise someone else should recite and blow in such a manner that his lips touch the affected person. Whatever you read blow in the glass of water at the end, and give it to the affected one to drink, each morning. If some unusual signs of effect are seen within the house, then a portion of that water should be sprinkled in the four corners of the house in such a manner that the drops of water does not fall on the floor.
